

OPEN UP THE HEAVENS

TOM SMITH
Worship Pastor

The Collective, Northside's Student Choir, will be leaving for Memphis, Tennessee bright and early Friday morning. We have a concert at noon on Friday in Nacogdoches at Northway Landing. We will spend the night at First Baptist Church in Benton, Arkansas.

We arrive in Memphis on Saturday morning, and immediately go to work at Bent Tree Apartments and Hope Fellowship Baptist Church. We sing again at 3:30pm in Millington. Then dinner and fireworks - it is the Fourth of July after all.

Sunday we will worship with Longcrest Baptist Church and perform at the Church Without Doors. Another performance that evening at Hope Fellowship, followed by a cook-out and games.

Monday we have a Back Yard Bible Club at Hope Fellowship. We will help with art, recreation, Bible study, and music. We take time out for a bit of culture at the Civil Rights Museum, then sing and serve at Madison Tower. We end the day with chapel service at Calvary Baptist Chapel.

Tuesday is another Back Yard Bible Club at Bent Tree Apartments. Another day of working with children and teaching them God's word. That afternoon we sing at Graceland. Then take a tour of this Memphis landmark.

Wednesday, we begin the journey back home. We have a concert at Brookdale in Texarkana before heading to Lewisville. Another concert with the Northview Journey Choir is on the schedule for Wednesday evening.

Thursday is the last leg of our journey, but we aren't finished yet. We sing our final concert at Brookdale Lake Brazos Assisted Living Community in Waco. We arrive back in Victoria around 5:30pm.

Each day these students are away will be filled with devotionals, missions, and music. Please pray for the students and adult sponsors as we take this trip. Pray for the people we encounter along the way.
